

Hallowed Ground

History Center and Allegheny Cemetery to honor
United States Colored Troops from Civil War

Nov. 14, 2010

1:30 p.m.

Allegheny Cemetery

4734 Butler St., Lawrenceville, Pittsburgh, PA

United States veterans, Civil War buffs, and all proud Pittsburghers are encouraged to join representatives from the Senator John Heinz History Center on Sunday, Nov. 14, for a special Veterans Day Weekend observance. Local African American veterans groups and political leaders will be on hand for a wreath laying ceremony to honor the United States Colored Troops (USCT) at rest in historic Allegheny Cemetery. For more information, please visit www.heinzhistorycenter.org or contact Natalie DeRiso at nnderiso@heinzhistorycenter.org or 412-454-6373.

