
PENNSYLVANIA ★ USCT ★ GRAND REVIEW

Honoring The United States Colored Troops From 25 states, In A Grand Review Of The Armies, Celebrating The End Of The Civil War.

Blair County Historical Society, African American Heritage Project of Blair County &
Allegheny Mountains Convention & Visitors Bureau

Invites You:

Sunday, November 14, 2010 at 2:30pm

Commemoration ceremony honoring six USCT soldiers, who fought in the Civil War, and are buried at Eastern Light Cemetery

Music of the era will be performed along with written acknowledgements of those who gave their service to gain the freedoms that were codified in the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments

Location: 10th Street and 1st Avenue, Altoona

(Behind Vicki's Florist, near Oak Ridge Cemetery and St. Mary's Cemetery)

Parking around the cemetery is very limited, please park at Oak Ridge or St. Mary's access roads

For more information about the ceremony, please contact Harriett Gaston, Chairperson, African American Heritage Project

814-949-5281

Monday through Friday, 8am to 5pm

hlg5@psu.edu