

The New-York Times

NEW-YORK, MONDAY, JULY 6, 1863.

Amusements this Evening.
WIBLO'S GARDEN—The Duke's Motto.
BARNUM'S MUSEUM—Gen. Tom Thumb and Wife.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES.
The price of the New-York Times (Daily) is Three Cents, except on the Sunday morning edition, which is Four Cents.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES.
To Mail Subscribers the price is $3 per annum—

NEWS OF THE DAY.
THE REBELLION.
Our news from the great battlefield of Gettysburg this morning is of the most cheering and satisfactory character.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Army of the Potomac, under its new leader, has won its greatest victory.

What Pennsylvania has Escaped.
Immediately preceding the present invasion of Pennsylvania all the newspapers of rebellion were for weeks filled with the most fearful and false accounts of atrocities committed by our armies in different parts of the Confederacy.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.
Gov. SEYMOUR has our sympathies. Whether he was trampled by party bonds or whether he was personally incapable of taking any larger view of the great theme which formed the topic of his speech on Saturday, we think him equally entitled to commiseration.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.
OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.
WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.
Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf.
WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

GENERAL NEWS.
The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
The Army of the Potomac, under its new leader, has won its greatest victory.

What Pennsylvania has Escaped.
Immediately preceding the present invasion of Pennsylvania all the newspapers of rebellion were for weeks filled with the most fearful and false accounts of atrocities committed by our armies in different parts of the Confederacy.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.
Gov. SEYMOUR has our sympathies. Whether he was trampled by party bonds or whether he was personally incapable of taking any larger view of the great theme which formed the topic of his speech on Saturday, we think him equally entitled to commiseration.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.
OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.
WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.
Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf.
WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

GENERAL NEWS.
The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

and results it has not been sufficiently encouraging for them to try it again.

The Triumph of the Army of the Potomac.

The Army of the Potomac, under its new leader, has won its greatest victory. The tremendous actions of the first three days of the month of July at Gettysburg have been followed by the complete discomfiture of the entire rebel army, which so audaciously and exultingly crossed the Potomac, and planted itself on Pennsylvania soil less than a fortnight ago.

What Pennsylvania has Escaped.

Immediately preceding the present invasion of Pennsylvania all the newspapers of rebellion were for weeks filled with the most fearful and false accounts of atrocities committed by our armies in different parts of the Confederacy.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.

Gov. SEYMOUR has our sympathies. Whether he was trampled by party bonds or whether he was personally incapable of taking any larger view of the great theme which formed the topic of his speech on Saturday, we think him equally entitled to commiseration.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.

Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

nor its valor, nor its inflexibility of purpose. It has been willing ever to serve and to struggle, to fight always, everywhere, and under all circumstances, to the death.

The Triumph of the Army of the Potomac.

The Army of the Potomac, under its new leader, has won its greatest victory. The tremendous actions of the first three days of the month of July at Gettysburg have been followed by the complete discomfiture of the entire rebel army, which so audaciously and exultingly crossed the Potomac, and planted itself on Pennsylvania soil less than a fortnight ago.

What Pennsylvania has Escaped.

Immediately preceding the present invasion of Pennsylvania all the newspapers of rebellion were for weeks filled with the most fearful and false accounts of atrocities committed by our armies in different parts of the Confederacy.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.

Gov. SEYMOUR has our sympathies. Whether he was trampled by party bonds or whether he was personally incapable of taking any larger view of the great theme which formed the topic of his speech on Saturday, we think him equally entitled to commiseration.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.

Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

to fame with his sword. As Commander of the Excelsior Brigade he made himself worthy of a Major-General's commission, and obtained it.

The Triumph of the Army of the Potomac.

The Army of the Potomac, under its new leader, has won its greatest victory. The tremendous actions of the first three days of the month of July at Gettysburg have been followed by the complete discomfiture of the entire rebel army, which so audaciously and exultingly crossed the Potomac, and planted itself on Pennsylvania soil less than a fortnight ago.

What Pennsylvania has Escaped.

Immediately preceding the present invasion of Pennsylvania all the newspapers of rebellion were for weeks filled with the most fearful and false accounts of atrocities committed by our armies in different parts of the Confederacy.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.

Gov. SEYMOUR has our sympathies. Whether he was trampled by party bonds or whether he was personally incapable of taking any larger view of the great theme which formed the topic of his speech on Saturday, we think him equally entitled to commiseration.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.

Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

bands. In addition, there was abundant ammunition and subsistence stores for the garrison, probably less than one thousand in number.

The Triumph of the Army of the Potomac.

The Army of the Potomac, under its new leader, has won its greatest victory. The tremendous actions of the first three days of the month of July at Gettysburg have been followed by the complete discomfiture of the entire rebel army, which so audaciously and exultingly crossed the Potomac, and planted itself on Pennsylvania soil less than a fortnight ago.

What Pennsylvania has Escaped.

Immediately preceding the present invasion of Pennsylvania all the newspapers of rebellion were for weeks filled with the most fearful and false accounts of atrocities committed by our armies in different parts of the Confederacy.

Gov. Seymour's Speech.

Gov. SEYMOUR has our sympathies. Whether he was trampled by party bonds or whether he was personally incapable of taking any larger view of the great theme which formed the topic of his speech on Saturday, we think him equally entitled to commiseration.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.

Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

and schooners, schooners, and steamers Key West and Illinois, and about forty prize vessels, including eight iron-clad monitors, laden with prize cargoes, put back in a leaking condition, after being out three days, bound for New-York.

FROM THE ISTHMI OF PANAMA.

Arrival of the Northern Light, with $251,947 in Treasure.

NEWS FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.

The steamship Northern Light, from Aspinwall on the 28th ult., arrived at this port yesterday, with the following

Table with columns: SPECIES LIST, FROM ASPINWALL, FROM SAN FRANCISCO, FROM PANAMA. Lists various goods and their quantities.

FROM PANAMA.

Latest News from Central America—The Quarrel between Salvador and Guatemala, &c.

Correspondence of the New-York Times. PANAMA, Friday, June 26, 1863.

The Panama Railroad Company's steamer Guatemala, arrived here on the 30th ult., with twenty-five passengers and the following freight: For Southampton—214 cocoons cochineal and 1 parcel empies.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

Hon. ELIhu WASHBURN, Senator WILKINSON, and Commissioner DOLA, arrived on the evening train.

GEN. SICKLES. Gen. SICKLES was brought here to-day in the morning train. He was carried on a litter to his quarters in F street, escorted by a guard of honor.

THE FOURTH. There was unusual satisfaction here, yesterday, in the celebration of the national holiday, consequent upon the proclamation of the President, and his official announcement of the successes at Gettysburg.

Extraordinary efforts continue to be made to develop our cavalry force in numbers and organization.

Celebration of the Fourth at Binghamton. SPEECH OF HON. H. J. RAYMOND. Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

BINGHAMTON, Saturday, July 4. The day was celebrated here with great spirit and enthusiasm, in spite of the threatening aspect of the weather, the town was crowded at a very early hour with people from the surrounding country, collected to participate in the proceedings.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE. Two Steamers and a Sloop Captured in the Gulf. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

Capt. MARGARET, of United States steamer Lockawana, reports to the Navy Department, under date of June 14, that at daylight the previous morning, whilst at anchor off Mobile, a black schooner was seen from a steamer, and by signal from the senior officer, gave chase, gaining gradually upon the vessel.

Another report from Capt. MARGARET, dated at sea, June 15, says:—At 10 o'clock, on the morning of the 15th, the steamer Naptune, in company with the schooner Naptune, captured yesterday, the black schooner of a steamer was seen ahead, for which this ship, as well as the Naptune, gave chase. She was not brought to until she struck her, which did no injury, however, and she was captured after having been chased 26 miles. She was the rebel steamer Planter, of Mobile, of 313 tons, and left Mobile Bay on the night of June 13, for Havana, with a cargo of 625 bales of cotton and 124 barrels of resin.

During the chase between 60 and 80 bales of cotton were thrown overboard, and several barrels of resin burned. Lieut. Commanding ELLIOT, of U. S. steamer Caracass, reports to the Department, dated from New Orleans, June 23, the capture of the rebel sloop John Wesley, from St. Marks for Havana, and the sloop John Wesley, from St. Marks for Havana.

The pirate Alabama is reported to be again cruising on the track of the Aspinwall steamers.

GENERAL NEWS. The Havana steamer which arrived yesterday brings later Mexican news, confirming the report received by way of Acapulco and San Francisco, that the French had been allowed to occupy the Mexican capital without opposition.

The steamship Northern Light arrived at this port yesterday from Aspinwall on the 28th ult. The news is of no importance. She brought $251,947 in treasure.

Advices from Venezuela indicate that the troubles in that country have broken out afresh. MARTINEZ is reported at the head of a new revolutionary movement.

GETTYSBURG.—The rebels have fought their first battle on the soil of the Free States. It is rather likely to be their last. In its nature

THE WALLACKIANS IN BROOKLYN.—On the Fourth of July the Academy of Music, in the City of Brooklyn, was a busy place. In the morning the Long Island Historical Society held their grand pow-wow in its beautiful auditorium; in the afternoon "Black-Eyed Susan" and the "Goddess of Liberty" caused alternate weepings and rejoicings; while in the evening the "Little Treasure," "Handy Andy," and a duplicate representation of the "Goddess of Liberty" afforded a representation of a crowded house.

MISS MADAME HENRIETTA was the belle of the afternoon, and the bright picture, star of the evening. At her feet young Brooklyn lavished its wealth and floral tributes, and her disappearance was the signal for one long melancholy wail. Miss EMILY TUCKER, Mr. CHARLES FISHER and Mr. and Mrs. FLOYD were well received, and mightily amused and delighted the house.

THE NEWS FROM CENTRAL AMERICA.—The steamer Northern Light, from Aspinwall on the 28th ult., arrived at this port yesterday, with the following

Table with columns: SPECIES LIST, FROM ASPINWALL, FROM SAN FRANCISCO, FROM PANAMA. Lists various goods and their quantities.

FROM PANAMA.

Latest News from Central America—The Quarrel between Salvador and Guatemala, &c.

Correspondence of the New-York Times. PANAMA, Friday, June 26, 1863.

The Panama Railroad Company's steamer Guatemala, arrived here on the 30th ult., with twenty-five passengers and the following freight: For Southampton—214 cocoons cochineal and 1 parcel empies.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON. OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sunday, July 5.

Hon. ELIhu WASHBURN, Senator WILKINSON, and Commissioner DOLA, arrived on the evening train.

GEN. SICKLES. Gen. SICKLES was brought here to-day in the morning train. He was carried on a litter to his quarters in F street, escorted by a guard of honor.

THE FOURTH. There was unusual satisfaction here, yesterday, in the celebration of the national holiday, consequent upon the proclamation of the President, and his official announcement of the successes at Gettysburg.

Extraordinary efforts continue to be made to develop our cavalry force in numbers and organization.

Celebration of the Fourth at Binghamton. SPEECH OF HON. H. J. RAYMOND. Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.