NEW YORK, TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1863.

WHOLE NO. 9631.

IMPORTANT ARMY NEWS.

RESIGNATION OF GEN. BURRIDGE.

General Hooker to Command the Army of the Potomac.

General Franklin and General Sumner Resigned Their Commands.

BURRIDGE'S ADDRESS TO THE ARMY.

One of the Reasons Assigned for the Change:

RECEPTION OF THE NEWS in the ARMY, &c., &c., &c.

Movements of General Burnside—When He Was Replaced by His Successor.

New General Burnside has made arrangements to be in New York early this week.

In the case of General Burnside, it has been reported,

with regard to the command of the Army of the Potomac, that the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, representing the Constitutional Union party, has been named to command the army.

The following description of General Burnside's

army as the words appear in the Philadelphia public press—

"It is the general belief that General Burnside will be in New York early this week. The public will be interested in hearing what he has to say on the subject of the war. The army is in a state of readiness, and it is expected that General Burnside

will be able to give the army instructions that will be in harmony with the wishes of the people."

The announcement of General Burnside's arrival

was accompanied by a statement that he had

arrived in New York early this week, and that he would make a public address on the subject of the war.

The following is a letter from General Burnside to

the Philadelphia public press:

"I have arrived in New York early this week, and

I shall make a public address on the subject of the

war. I shall be happy to answer any questions that may be put to me on the subject."

The public will no doubt be pleased to hear what

General Burnside has to say on the subject of the

war. His address will be published in the newspapers

of the city, and will be read with great interest.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

PROMPTED OFFICIALS are taking steps to prevent the presence of any enemy's force in the city. The

move is expected to be quite effective.

Important Election.

The Speaker Elect Declares Himself a Democrat, and

States that He Will Vote for Lincoln for President.

The Revolutionaries of the State Capital.

Trouble Between the State and National Government Rife.

MORE SCENES OF DISORDER, &c., &c., &c.

The announcement of General Burnside's arrival

was accompanied by a statement that he had

arrived in New York early this week, and that he

would make a public address on the subject of the war. The following is a letter from General Burnside to

the Philadelphia public press:

"I have arrived in New York early this week, and

I shall make a public address on the subject of the

war. I shall be happy to answer any questions that may be put to me on the subject."

The public will no doubt be pleased to hear what

General Burnside has to say on the subject of the

war. His address will be published in the newspapers

of the city, and will be read with great interest.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

PROMPTED OFFICIALS are taking steps to prevent the presence of any enemy's force in the city. The

move is expected to be quite effective.

Important Election.

The Speaker Elect Declares Himself a Democrat, and

States that He Will Vote for Lincoln for President.

The Revolutionaries of the State Capital.

Trouble Between the State and National Government Rife.

MORE SCENES OF DISORDER, &c., &c., &c.

The announcement of General Burnside's arrival

was accompanied by a statement that he had

arrived in New York early this week, and that he

would make a public address on the subject of the

war. The following is a letter from General Burnside to

the Philadelphia public press:

"I have arrived in New York early this week, and

I shall make a public address on the subject of the

war. I shall be happy to answer any questions that may be put to me on the subject."

The public will no doubt be pleased to hear what

General Burnside has to say on the subject of the

war. His address will be published in the newspapers

of the city, and will be read with great interest.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

PROMPTED OFFICIALS are taking steps to prevent the presence of any enemy's force in the city. The

move is expected to be quite effective.

Important Election.

The Speaker Elect Declares Himself a Democrat, and

States that He Will Vote for Lincoln for President.

The Revolutionaries of the State Capital.

Trouble Between the State and National Government Rife.

MORE SCENES OF DISORDER, &c., &c., &c.

The announcement of General Burnside's arrival

was accompanied by a statement that he had

arrived in New York early this week, and that he

would make a public address on the subject of the

war. The following is a letter from General Burnside to

the Philadelphia public press:

"I have arrived in New York early this week, and

I shall make a public address on the subject of the

war. I shall be happy to answer any questions that may be put to me on the subject."

The public will no doubt be pleased to hear what

General Burnside has to say on the subject of the

war. His address will be published in the newspapers

of the city, and will be read with great interest.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

PROMPTED OFFICIALS are taking steps to prevent the presence of any enemy's force in the city. The

move is expected to be quite effective.

Important Election.

The Speaker Elect Declares Himself a Democrat, and

States that He Will Vote for Lincoln for President.

The Revolutionaries of the State Capital.

Trouble Between the State and National Government Rife.

MORE SCENES OF DISORDER, &c., &c., &c.

The announcement of General Burnside's arrival

was accompanied by a statement that he had

arrived in New York early this week, and that he

would make a public address on the subject of the

war. The following is a letter from General Burnside to

the Philadelphia public press:

"I have arrived in New York early this week, and

I shall make a public address on the subject of the

war. I shall be happy to answer any questions that may be put to me on the subject."

The public will no doubt be pleased to hear what

General Burnside has to say on the subject of the

war. His address will be published in the newspapers

of the city, and will be read with great interest.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

PROMPTED OFFICIALS are taking steps to prevent the presence of any enemy's force in the city. The

move is expected to be quite effective.

Important Election.

The Speaker Elect Declares Himself a Democrat, and

States that He Will Vote for Lincoln for President.

The Revolutionaries of the State Capital.

Trouble Between the State and National Government Rife.

MORE SCENES OF DISORDER, &c., &c., &c.

The announcement of General Burnside's arrival

was accompanied by a statement that he had

arrived in New York early this week, and that he

would make a public address on the subject of the

war. The following is a letter from General Burnside to

the Philadelphia public press:

"I have arrived in New York early this week, and

I shall make a public address on the subject of the

war. I shall be happy to answer any questions that may be put to me on the subject."

The public will no doubt be pleased to hear what

General Burnside has to say on the subject of the

war. His address will be published in the newspapers

of the city, and will be read with great interest.

THE NEW YORK HERALD.