Gen. Mende's Movements. The occupation of Madison C. H. by General Mende is a movement of much significance. Being near the base of the mountains, and on the route to Stannardsvile-which latter point is about twelve miles further, and some eighteen northwest of Gordonsville—the movement would seem to imply that an effort is to be made to flank Gordonsville or co-operate with some movement in Western Virginia by threatening Lee's western communications. In the meantime, it is not improbable that Gen. Meade holds a force in readiness to avail himself of any advantage which a withdrawal of the rebel forces

The K. G. C. War in Scott County,

at Fredericksburg might give him.

A variety of wild rumors have been flying about for the last two days in reference to the state of affairs in the district about Manchester and Whitehall. One report upon the streets on Saturday was to the effect that an attack had been made by a party of the bushwhackers on a small detachment of soldiers, the latter being posted in a round-house on the Jacksonville and Alton railroad above Manchester, and three of the former had been killed and several wounded. None of the soldiers were said to be injured. So far as were able to learn at a late hour last night, however, this report had received no con-

A report was in circulation at Jacksonville last night that the soldiers had made about thirty more captures. This report also needs confirmation—though it may be regarded as highly probable, from the fact that they remain in the infected region, and are not idle. The most reliable information we have been able to obtain in reference to the state of affairs is to the following purport: That a large body of K. G. C.'s and rebel sympathizers from Greene, Macoupin, Morgan, Scott, Cass, Menard and perhaps other adjoining counties, have been collecting for several days past, near the boundary of Greene, Morgan and Scott counties. The force is estimated variously at five hundred to one or two thousand—though the latter estimate is undoubtedly an exaggeration. Two or three companies are reported to have passed through Carlinville for the rendezvous on Friday, and the constitution-loving, law-abiding Copperheads of Lack Creek, in the southwestern part of this county, are said to have furnished another. A company from the northwest part of Scott county also passed down on Thursday or Friday. All the insurgents are said to be well armed and mounted, and their manner of coming together indicates thorough secret organization.

gents had a rendezvous or camp on Apple Creek, near the boundary line of Greene and Morgan counties. A gentleman who claimed to have passed through it on Saturday estimated their number at five hundred. They are reported to be prepared with wagons, tents, camp utensils, etc., for a campaign. They are also said to have two pieces of artillery. There may be other similar rendezyous, but we have no t heard of their location.

It was understood yesterday that the insur-

Threats to destroy Jacksonville are understood to have been made, and the loyal people of that thriving city were taking all necessary precautions to insure their own safety. The raiders will not find it an easy matter to carry their threats into execution.

Mr. Bacon, the energetic Superintendent of the Jacksonville and Alton Railroad, we learn, still continues to run his trains over that road, being fully prepared for any emergency. A gentleman who came up last night informs us that a considerable amount of track was torn up two or three days ago, the rails being twisted and bent to prevent their being used again, but it was promptly repaired.

Two companies of the 10th Minnesota under command of Maj. Cook, amounting to 150 men, arrived in this city on Saturday, and were forwarded to Jacksonville by special train in the afternoon. We learn that they left Jacksonville by railroad for Whitehall the same evening. They have had experience in Indian warfare, and are, doubtless, well qualified to meet bush-

This outbreak has already clearly shown the lawless spirit of those concerned with it. They have already committed a felonious act in tearing up the railroad track, and are in a fair way to manufacture material for a strong indictment for treason. They will either soon be compelled to disperse, or take another step in lawlessness, by resorting to indiscriminate plunder, in order to obtain subsistence. Whatever outrages they may commit, or whatever losses the loyal people of that region may suffer from the destruction of property, there are no fears as to the final result. They will be known, and punishment, sooner or later, will overtake them. There is no solicitude in well-informed circles in reference to the ability of the troops already sent to that quarter to protect themselves against any force of the in-

The Chicago Press informs us that a movements is on foot for the formation of an independent (alias Copperhead) branch of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the established organization being too loyal for them. What these Copporheads want already esists in the Methodist Church South, an organization begun in secession and almost unanimously desloyal. If they insist, however, upon its counterpart in the North, they will doubtless begin by the election of the immaculate Fernando Wood and Isaiah Rynders, of New York, Cathent, of Ohio, Storey, of the Chicago Times and Singleton as Bishopz. An excellent field for obtaining members to such a Copperhead Church is to be found among the K. G. C.'s now organized to resist the arrest of deserters in Scott and Greene counties. We venture to say that they would join in a body, provided they were promised full rations of whisky.

Innuguration of the Gettysburg Cometery. Special dispatches from Gettysburg estimate the number of persons present at the consecration of the National Cemetery at that place on Thursday last, at from 30,000 to 50,000. Among the distinguished persons present were President Lincoln, Secretary Seward, Montgomery Blair, Govs. Tod and Brough, of Ohio; Govs. Curtin; of Pennsylvania, Seymour, of New York, Lieut-Gov. Anderson, of Ohio, Gov. Boreman, of Western Virginia, Gens. Stone, Couch and Schenck, and a number of Foreign Ministers.

Admirals, etc. After the performance of an original piece by the band, furnished by Gov. Curtin, a piece cloquently suited to the occasion, which was performed with pre-eminent skill, Rev. Mr. Stock ton, the venerable Chaplain of the United States Senate, was introduced, who offered up such a prayer as only he is capable of. The vastiassembly stood uncovered in breathless attention during the invocation, and few indeed were the hearts however obdurate, that did not unite with him in this prayer for the great American nation. Never was a man selected for any service so fit in every respect to perform it. There the reverend gentlemen stood, looking as if himself was one of the brave dead, whose graves were spread out before him, just risen from the tomb to invoke the God of nations and liberty, to bless the sacred work and inspire the hearts of the living with the grandeur of the work still

The oration by Mr. Everett, which was one of the most eloquent of his life, occupied two hours and four minutes in delivery.

At the conclusion of the oration the following dirgo, composed for the occasion by B. B. French, was performed by a choir from the Musical Association of Baltimore:

> As Holy Ground, This spot where in their graves Wo place our country's braves Who fell in Freedom's holy cause, Fighting for liberties and laws, Let tears abound.

Here let them rest,
And summer's heat and winter's cold
Shall wax and wave above their mould;
A thousand years shall pass away,
A nation still shall mourn this clay— The soil is blest.

Here where they fell, Oft shall the widow's tear be shed, Oft shall fond parents mourn their dead, The orphan here shall kneel and weep, And maldens where their lovers sleep, Their wees shall tell. Great God of Heaven!

Shall all this sacred blood be shed? Shall we thus mourn our glorious dead? Oh, shall the end be ruth and wee— The knell of Freedom's everthrow— A country riven?

It will not be.
We trust, Oh God, thy gracious power
To aid us in this darkest hour;
This be our prayer: Oh Father save
A people's Freedom from the grave—
All praise to Thee. President Lincoln was then introduced, when, after the applause had subsided, he spoke as follows:

Four score and seven years ago, our fathers established upon this continent a Government subscribed in liberty and dedicated to the fundamental principle that all mankind are created equal by a good God, [applause] and now we are engaged in a great contest. We are contesting the question whether this nation, or any nation so conceived, so dedicated, can longer remain. We are met on a great battle field of the war. We are met here to dedicate a portion of that field as the final resting place of those who have given their lives to that nation that it might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a large sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men lying dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. [Great applause.] The world will little heed, nor long remember, what we say here; but it will not forget what they did here. [Immense applause.]

It is for us rather, the living, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they have thus far so nobly carried forward. It is rather for us here to be dedicated the great task ward. It is rather for unifere to be dedicated the great that remaining before us; for us to renew our devotion to that cause for which they gave the full measure of their devotion. Here let us resolve that what they have done shall not have been done in vain. That the nation shall, under Gol, have a new birth. That the Government of the people, founded by the neonle, shall not perish.

The conclusion of the President's remarks was followed by immense applause, and three cheers given for him, and also three cheers for the Governors of the States.

Hard from their Friends.

The Copperhead press has been ominously silent upon the subject of the recent attempt to resist the authorities in the vicinity of Manchester and Whitehall: So far as they are concerned, the people have been left in total ignorance of the fact that an outbreak had taken place, notwithstanding that it commenced as early as Wednesday of last week--the Journal having announced the fact of the tearing up the railroad track above Manchester on Thursday morning.

The first notice we have seen of these proceedings in a Copperhead sheet is the following apologetic dispatch from this city published in the Chicago Times of Saturday last. The Springfield correspondent telegraphs that paper as follows:

The recent troubles in Scott and Green counties, in regard to deserters, appears to have subsided. The whole matter has been exaggerated. It is true that a train was stopped and a rail torn up, but no great damage was done.

The above would be very gratifying if it were true. But when it was written, seventeen Copperheads were on their way to Springfield under arrest for resisting the arrest of deserters, and organized bands of sympathizers with these men from other counties were on their way to join their friends and assist in still further resistance. Only "a rail torn up," and the trouble "subsided!" Only a penitentiary offense committed -and "no great damage done," quoth the veracious correspondent of the Times ! ...

Yesterday morning the Register, following the example of the Times, mustered courage to allude to the subject, and in doing so gave to its readers from a Jacksonville paper information which was given more fully in the JOURNAL on Saturday morning—and which the Register might have obtained if it had desired. One paragraph copied from the Jacksonville paper and endorsed by the Register as "reliable," is somewhat striking. It is as follows:

We are creditably informed that none of the respectable officers in the vicinity of these troubles sympathize, with these misguided men, who are opposing the laws and seeking to involve their neighbors in civil strife.

We can readily believe the statement that "none of the respectable citizens in the vicinity of these troubles sympathize with" the men who, by their resistance to the constituted authorities, have bought them about. We should have assumed as much, without the assurance of either the Jacksonville paper or the Register. But "misguided men," it strikes us, is putting the case rather mildly, even for a Copperhead newspaper when speaking of men who are banded together for the avowed purpose of resisting the execution of the laws, who have already been guilty of a felonious act, and would have committed murder if their attempts had been successful. Who are these "misguided men?" Let it be remembered that they are the followers and admirers-every one of them-of the Chicayo Times, State Register, and kindred sheets. They are now merely putting in practice what these sheets have taught them but too well.

NATURAL ENOUGH .-- A Jerseyman) writing since the result of the late elections has been made known, says: The revolution intended by the Union been invited to Jeff. Davis' funeral, the later of the late

The New York Election. The result of the New York election has been officially announced. On the vote for Secretary State it is as follows :

The total vote this year is 599,379, against 602,540 last year—a falling off of only 3,167 votes. The absolute gain in the Union vote this year upon that of last year, is 18,545; Copperhead loss in the same time, 21,712. The clear Union gain upon last year (when the Copperhead majority was 10,752) is 40,257. Of course in the face of these figures Copperheads will continue to assert that there have been no changes-and that they simply allowed the elections to go by default. But the people won't believe

President Lincoln's statement to Wendell Phillips that the emancipation proclamation was the greatest folly of his life, is being quoted with great widity by the aboliton press. The National Intelligencer discloses the reason press. The National why .- State Register.

The only papers in which we have noticed the protended statement of Wendell Phillips "quoted with great avidity," have been the National Intelligencer, the Chicago Times and the State Register. Do these set themselves up for the abolition press?

The National Intelligencer confesses that it does not know any authority for the statement, and the Times and Register do not protend to give any. Will the Register now furnish the proof for the statement?

A VETERAN Editor RETIRED .- The Chicago Post announces that Dr. C. H. Ray, for several years past the leading editor of the Tribune, of that city, has sold out his interest in that paper and retired. Dr. Ray, though comparatively a young man, has had a leng and successful career in the editorial profession. The success of the Tribune since his connection with it, has scarcely had its parallel in the history of newspapers, and has been largely due to his taste, skill and vigor as a journalist. The reading public will hear the announcement of his retirement with regret, especially if that retirement is to be permanent. We wish him long life and prosperity in whatever business he may engage.

"ET Tu, BRUTE!"-Gov. Seymour, of New York, who has been for months past the choice of the Vallandigham-peace party for the next Presidency, made a speech at the inauguration of the National Cometery at Gettysburg the other day, in which he advocated a vigorous prosecution of the war as the only means of putting down the rebellion. Gov. Seymour has evidently had his eyes opened by the result of the late election in New York. But what will the Chicago Times and State Register say to his conversion?

THE UNION VICTORY IN CLINION COUNTY .-The official returns from Clinton county have not yet been received. We learn, however, from the Carlyle Union Banner that the Union men have succeeded in electing their whole county ticket. The following is the result:

 O. B. Nichols' majority over Ben Bond

 G. Blattner over W. Fryling
 49

 F. A. Lietze over Wm. Burnside
 25
 Clinton county last year gave Starne a majority of 452. The Union men there have done

INDIGNANTLY DENIED.—The Springfield correspondent of the Chicago Times telegraphs that

The statement that prominent Democrats met here recently and decided to have a session of the Legislature, regardless of the decision of the Supreme Court, is false in every respect. There was no such meeting. Democrats, now as heretofore, abide by the decisions of the courts.

The lesson of the late election has taught the peace Democracy to maintain aless defiant attitude towards the people and the courts, and they are almost read to imagine therefore that they are law-abiding and virtuous.

VERY SIGNIFICANT.—It is reported that a number of Copperheads of this city, who have shown their love of peace by encouraging armed resistance to the Government, went on a hunting excursion about the time of the K. G. C. outbreak in Scott county last week. One of these, who has been very active in encouraging resistance to the laws, was seen in the brush below Loami, where the K. G. C.'s have been accustomed to congregate, and whence it is understood that a company has gone to swell the ranks of the insurgents. It is said, however, that he abandoned his friends and made good time back to the city, when he saw that there was stern work ahead, thus showing that he had little stomach for the business to which he had been encouraging others. The Government will do well to keep its eye upon these bushwhacking gentry.

A LIBERAL ACT.—It has already been announced that Hon. Thos. H. Bryan, President of the Soldiers Home in Chicago, was the purchaser of the original draft of the Emancipation Proclamation for the sum of $3,000. By his request the proceeds went to the benefit of the "Home." He has since presented the manuscript to the Home, which thus comes in possession of both the price and the document itself. Facisimiles of the latter will no doubt be taken, thus securing to the Association a permanent

Supreme Court. The Supreme Court has adjourned its session at Mount. Vernon, taking the Wabash Railway case under advisement. A decision is promised at the term commencing at Springfield in about two weeks.

The Wabash railwayers have as yet made no indication of their desires in answer to the suggostion of the court, whether in the event of a lisagreement between the two Judges holding the term, the question should be referred to Chief Justice Caton, upon printed arguments, briefs, etc.

This matter Messrs. Goudy, et al., are "hold ng under advisement." They desire first to ascertain the "fact of disagreement," in which case they will announce to the court the result of their decision.—Chicago Post.

A train of ten wagons, loaded with cavalry clothing, left Little Rock recently for the outpost at Benton, 25 miles distant, with an escort of fifteen men. A party of sixty guerrillas made a dash on them and captured the train and sixty mules. They set fire to the wagons and escaped to the woods. A company of cavalry were sent in pursuit but failed to overtake Capt. Broader, of gunboat 9, was accidentally shot and killed on the 14th inst., near Skipwith's landing, while hunting. He was buried with military honors.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Yesterday evening about 90 of Mosby's men appeared in front of Bealton with the intention of making a raid on the railroad. Being dressed in one uniform, the 1st Pennsylvania and 6th Ohio cavalry, who were in the immediate neighborhood at the time, mistook them for friends but soon discovered their error, when the rebels fired a volley into them by which several were wounded.

The rebels were instantly pursued and driven into Snicker's Gap. Six of the gang were captured. At the latest accounts our cavalry had not returned.

John Minor Botts, who is now at his residence in Auburn, Culpepper county, previous to our recent advance over the Rappahannock, sent a letter to the Richmond Examiner on the subject of his arrest and treament. It is full of interest, and a copy has been obtained for publi

More Rebel Outrages in Tennessee. A late dispatch from Cairo says:

Wm. Hughes, private in company C, 6th Tennessee cavalry, Col. Hurst, who lives in Hardin county, eight miles northwest of Savannah, arrived here yesterday. He states that on the 3d inst., forly-two guerrillas rode up to his house, when four of the number dismounted and went into an adjoining house. His wife followed them, when one of them turned around and deliberately shot her, so badly that she only lived fifteen minutes afterwards, saying, "Daughter, help me, let me down." Mr. Hughes' daughter asked Lee his name. He cursed her, and when she endeavored to perform her mother's dying request, he knocked her down with his gun The Captain of the band put his hand over the mouth of the dying woman to stop her breath His name is James Stumett, and belongs to Col. Wilson's regiment of Tennessee guerrillas, who had boasted four miles from the house that they would get one or the other, meaning husband or wife. The daughter is 20 years old; the wife 44 years; Hughes is 63 years old, and is one of four men confined in a dangeon in Nashville.
