

THE GETTYSBURG CELEBRATION.

Yesterday the National Cemetery at Gettysburg, prepared for the interment of the remains of the Federal soldiers who fell in the battles of the 1st, 2d, and 3d of July, was formally consecrated, in the presence of an immense concourse of people gathered from all parts of the Union, of the President, the Governors of the loyal States, and many distinguished representatives of the army, navy, clergy, and the liberal professions. There was a large concourse of persons on the ground, numbering over 15,000. The President made the dedication speech, Edward Everett delivered the oration, which was listened to in silence. The entire scene was one of grandeur due the importance of the occasion.