Mr. BROWN of Wisconsin. I ask the gentleman from Ohio to yield to me to offer a substitute which I should much prefer to the original joint resolution, but I do not offer it.

Mr. ASHLEY. I cannot yield for that purpose. I have a substitute myself, which I should much prefer to the original joint resolution, but I do not offer it.

Mr. ELDREDGE. The Speaker, the gentleman from Ohio says that he has a substitute which he himself prefers to this joint resolution. I ask him to tell us the substitute which he has in the House? There certainly will be no objection on this side.

Mr. ASHLEY. I do not offer it, because I would not propose any discussion or hazard the passage of the measure.

Mr. ELDREDGE. It seems to me that if the gentleman has a better substitute, he should propose it. [Calls to order.]

The previous question was seconded, and the House ordered to move in the affirmative—yeas 119, nays 56, voting 3.
