The capacity of the Coal-laden ships for the year just closed was 17,631 tens. while that of the same for the year 1861 was only 5131 tons—a difference when compared with the totals of I 14.293 tons—and yet the amount of leading articles that I ske wheat, H D Ellerhorst & Co. wont forward in 1862 considerably exceeded that of 1861, an will be seen by a reference to the statement

The ships and tonnage for the year were divided | among the several lines as follow: Coleman's line, 15 ships, 19,206 tons; Cooler's, 17 ships, 19,697 tons; Sutton's, 17 ships, 21,753 tons; Comstock's, 8 ships, 8490 tons; Glidden's, 16 ships, 17,312 tons; Winsor's, 11 j ahips, 11,763 toha. The foregoing list includes all of the regular lines. Of outside ships, there were 4, registoring in the aggregate 4796 tons, beside the 16 Coal 1 carriers, registering 17,634 tons.

The tonnage at present under engagement foots up as Ships Belle of the See, 1255 tons, Comstock's line, will probably be full about the 10th; Malay, 850, same !! will follow the Belle; Commonwealth, 1255, same line, bran, and 970 bales hay. will follow the Malay; Shooting Star, 947, Coleman's. will be full the 15th, probably; Challenger, 1931, same tine, will follow the Shooting Star; Orpheus, 1272, same line, will follow the C.; Charger, 1135.
