Dickinson College Notes.

Robert Young has been janitor at Dickinson College for thirty-two years and he states that in all that time the college buildings were never given such a complete renovation as at present.

Rooms are being repainted, replastered; in short, almost entirely refitted.

The athletic field is also being improved by removing the weeds, whitewashing the fence and putting the tennis courts in order.