

Shirley Spradley, a young colored man and son of Henry Spradley, the janitor at Dickinson college, was arrested to-day for robbing the trunk of J. H. Richards, a student at the college. The information was made by President Reed and the arrest was made by Officer Jordan. The fellow took $40 from the trunk on Saturday evening, but the theft was not discovered for some time. Spradley was taken before Assistant Burgess Faber, who committed him for trial.
