

Shirley Spradley, the young colored man who was arrested for taking $49 from the trunk of a Dickinson student, has been exonerated, and to-day President Reed of the college withdrew the suit. The defendant was last night released on bail and at the hearing to-day he showed where he had obtained the money he had spent and he was discharged. Another person is suspected and Spradley's innocence is admitted.